

WINNERS AGAIN — Only one week after winning the Autumn Band Review at San Diego State College on Nov. 10, the Mt. Miguel High School Band and Specialty Corps did the same thing at the Arcadia Invitational Band Review. The competition up north was a little heavier in number and quality, for the 45 bands and 35 drill teams in the two-division event had, like Mt. Miguel been local winners. For the second year in a row at Arcadia, the Matador 82-member Cape and Cadence Corps outscored all other drill teams. Mt. Miguel Specialty Corps advisor Agnes King was thrilled. She said, "The victory Saturday is a real feather

LG's Precinct Totals Listed

A break-down of votes by precincts was completed last week by John Bridger, Republican area chairman, and few unusual figures were revealed. Interesting, however, are the totals of the Van Deerlin-Wilson race where Wilson finished ahead by more than 850 votes. Nixon was surprisingly strong here and Christopher outpointed Glenn Anderson substantially.

The totals for Lemon Grove's 45 precincts:
Brown 3531—Nixon 4598
Anderson 3858—Christopher 4295
Jordan 4250—Rose 3108
Cranston 4263—Reagan 3625
Betts 4147—Busterud 3817
Mosk 4190—Coakley 3958
Nevins 4261—Flournoy 3621
Kuchel 5070—Richards 3078
Van Deerlin 3604—Wilson 4478
Fisher 4067—Schrade 3975
Donovan 4339—Rodriguez 3395.

College Board Approves Plan For Development

Approval of a master plan for Grossmont Junior college was voted Monday night by district trustees. The board asked engineers to produce a study of more intensive development under which potentially 10,000 students may be accommodated.

The master plan which the board approved calls for a capacity of 2,500 students in 1964. The plan was developed by district engineers, architects and planning consultants. It also provides for an increase to an average of 5,000 students.

Trustee Bob Dryden asked the board to increase campus capacity and efficiency by considering multi-story buildings instead of acquiring a second site.

Local Restaurants Hosting 3 Biggest LG-SV Families For Thanksgiving

Three local restaurants—the new Grove Inn Restaurant and El Morocco of Lemon Grove and Henry Langhorst's of Spring Valley—are having to Thanksgiving Dinner on Wednesday evening of this week the three biggest families that could be found in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area.

The families each have 12 children and the three live in Lemon Grove. They are the Mr. and Mrs. Keith Thornton family of 2005 Fairhaven L.G., who will dine at Henry Langhorst's; the Mr. and Mrs. John Daniels family of 8336 Golden ave., L.G., who will dine at El Morocco and the Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carroll family of 7479 Mt. Vernon, L.G. who will dine at Grove Inn Restaurant.

Bill Gott, co-owner of the Grove Inn Restaurant helped this newspaper decide to go ahead with the interesting task of finding the biggest families. When told about the idea weeks ago, he said he liked it and that he'd be ready for the biggest family that could be found. Henry Langhorst and his son, Robert Henry also found the idea appealing as did Mike Mouzas, who operates El Morocco. Nobody knew what size families would be encountered.

Said Mrs. Carroll: "We've never been to a restaurant together. Frankly, I'm scared." Not wishing to be treason to the glory of having a big family, Mrs. Carroll said she wanted to go ahead with it with as many of her children as could be gotten together at one time. They range in age from 20 months to 21 years.

Variance Granted To Ray Lange In L.G.

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—A zoning variance so a Lemon Grove property owner can build closer to the center of the street than the law normally allows was granted Friday by the County Planning Commission.

Raymond H. Lange will be able to add to his house, with the new construction being 40 feet, instead of the required 50 feet, from the center of the street, at 2931 Orange pl.

The commission was told that the same variance was granted in 1955, but never used, and that there are similar variances in the neighborhood.

CHURCH GETS YEAR'S EXTENSION BY PLANNERS

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — An other year's delay in construction of a Spring Valley church was approved Friday by the County Planning Commission. The commission granted a year's extension to Nov. 1963 in the special use permit the Southern California District of the Lutheran Church already has for a church on the east side of Sweetwater Spring boulevard, facing Harmony in.

EVENING SECTION OF S.V. WOMAN'S CLUB TO BE GUESTS AT MEETING

The Spring Valley Woman's Club has slated a special evening meeting for Nov. 28 at 7:30 p.m. in Pals and Gals Clubhouse (Goodland Acres) on Troy st. Special guests will be the Evening Section of the club.

Van Deerlin Asks For Chamber-Men's Club Meet In Lemon Grove Nov. 30

A joint meeting of the Lemon Grove Men's Club and the chamber of commerce to discuss the problems and needs of the Lemon Grove community with U.S. Congressman Lionel Van Deerlin is being planned by the presidents of the two groups.

The meeting, scheduled for Friday Nov. 30 at Michael's at noon, will be open to all interested citizens. Women, too, are invited, in spite of the fact that the Men's Club is involved.

Jim Spears, Men's Club president and Bob Vaughn, chamber president, were in agreement that such a meeting, at the request of the newly elected Congressman would be "useful."

Chance To Meet Solon
Vaughn said that the invitations to the luncheon that would go out to chamber members did not mean that non-members could not attend. "A lot of people voted for Van Deerlin and this will be a good chance for some of them to meet him personally," Vaughn also said that members would be sent cards on which they could list matters they wanted

Van Deerlin to discuss. Spears said that Van Deerlin had instituted a community get-together. "He said he wanted to maintain communications at the 'grass-roots' level in his district. The Men's club is gratified that the Congressman sought it out for the meeting."

Preparing For Washington

Van Deerlin, a democrat who was described as "liberal" by his opponent, Dick Wilson, whom he defeated handily in the new 37th Congressional District, said that he wanted to take a "personally investigated list of community-type objectives" with him to Washington.

Reservations for the luncheon are not necessary although better service can be provided by the restaurant if a good estimate of the attendance is available in advance.

Those, other than members of either of the two sponsoring organizations should contact the chamber office from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. for reservations. Arrangements can also be made through Jim Spears at 469-6141 or Bob Vaughn 463-8833.

REAL ESTATE SALES SHOW INCREASE

There was a marked increase in real estate activity in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley-La Mesa area in October, according to Trends, monthly real estate publication for the San Diego County area.

The increase was from 198 real estate sales in September to 280 in October. In October of 1961 there were 223 sales.

Teacher Robbers Enter Plea Of Guilty Here

Two men charged with robbing a high school teacher in Jamul Nov. 7 pleaded guilty Monday in El Cajon.

The defendants are Robert N. Hearsom, 36, of Bellflower, and Dwight A. Anderson, 30, of Las Vegas, who have been identified as fugitives from the state prison farm at Camp Minnewawa.

Sheriff's deputies said Hearsom and Anderson entered the home of the teacher, Bruce E. Porteous, of Jamul, the night after they escaped from the farm. They robbed him, tied him and fled in his car, deputies charge.

Deputy John Galt stopped the car a few minutes later in Casa de Oro. Porteous, who teaches U.S. history at Hoover High, had worked himself free and called the sheriff's office.

Municipal Court Judge Alfred Lord continued their bail at $5,000 each and ordered them to appear in Superior Court for arraignment Monday.

They are expected to be arraigned soon on a felony escape charge. Hearsom was serving a sentence for assault with a deadly weapon and Anderson for writing bad checks, according to Sheriff's Department records.

S. V. Float Almost Misses Parade

Petty thieves pretty nearly wrecked the plans of the Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce to enter its float in the Mother Goose Parade Sunday, Nov. 18 by siphoning off all the gas line from the tank of the float's automobile parked at the little hangar in the old La Mesa Air port.

The loss was discovered by the board members of the Chamber Sunday morning when they tried to drive the car off the grounds to the highway. This caused other car trouble which had to be traced. As there are no shopping facilities close to the hangar location, time was consumed going after gasoline and doing car repair. This made the float "Let Freedom Ring" the last one to report in to the assembly grounds in El Cajon for the parade.

Meanwhile the float personnel which had been waiting at the grounds since 10 a.m. were going through the stages of bewilderment, anxiety, despair and almost heart failure before the golden arch showed in the entrance.

Damage had also been done to the float which was quickly mended at the starting point.

Three Checks Bounced
Taking advantage of Lemon Grove acquaintances, Evad E. Oliver, a piano player, allegedly employed by the Horseshoe Tavern, 7664 Broadway, L.G., is charged with passing no-good checks for ten dollars with several Lemon Grove merchants, Pal's Cafe, 4521 Imperial ave., L.G. was victimized with two checks, Oct. 11 and 13, by Oliver. Another check allegedly cashed by Oliver, Oct. 13, was at Popular Delicatessen, 7326 Broadway, L.G.

James M. Fetter, 55, owner of Pal's, reported the matter to the Sheriff's Dept. Nov. 14, and said his bartender had accepted the checks, believing he knew Oliver well enough that he

THANKSGIVING — A new church, symbolic of the tomorrows that must be faced, furnishes a dramatic backdrop for the Rev. E. Walter Smith, pastor of the Lemon Grove Congregational church, as he offers thank-giving for today and yesterday. The new church on Glebe rd., will be used for the first time Thanksgiving Day as the old church on Main st., a L.G. landmark becomes part of local church history.

ONE OF AREA'S OLDEST CHURCHES

L. G. Congregational Church Moves Into New Sanctuary After 71 Years On Main St.

The last service in 71 years of worshipping was held at Lemon Grove Congregational Church last Sunday, Nov. 18 because of completion of the church's new, umbrella-like edifice on Glebe road in L.G. The congregation will worship there starting there on Thanksgiving.

Sunday was "a day to remember with happiness and a twinge of sadness for those of the church," wrote one member. The church was one of the first established in this area. It is a landmark both for Grovans and for many others in the San Diego County area.

The church did not announce what it intends to do with the Main street grounds and sanctuary, the architecture of which contrasts markedly with the modernistic structure on Glebe road.

Following the historic final main street services Sunday, the congregation began moving things to the new church. Chairs, hymnals, choir robes and many other items were moved after the 10:30 worship. The Rev. E. Walter Smith performed a brief worship service in the new sanctuary. Later in the day at 1 p.m. men and boys of the church continued the moving.

On Thanksgiving Day at 9 a.m. the first regular worship will take place in the new church. All members and friends are invited to this service, it was announced.

'SPARE THEM TREES'

The applicant was Charles L. Taylor, with the trees he sought to remove located in front of his property, at 100E San Juan street.

Build-Up Begins Again In L.G.

The tide of business closures in Lemon Grove apparently has been turned with the announcement that two new firms will open shortly here.

New is hardly the adjective to use with Lou Brouillard who will open a hardware store where the L.G. Department store formerly was. He operated a hardware store here several years ago on the south side of Broadway, until an investor bought him out. He has since been operating hardware stores in other parts of the county.

Where Williams Department store was until recently, Ralph Clark, the department store operator of La Mesa is in the process of opening. Clark is well known in service club circles and should make a good addition to the town.

The lighting up of these two dark spots should encourage people who want a more integrated community to consider the matter of loyalty. Nowhere can there be a happy community unless it has a business street that is doing business; where shop operators are interested in the community as such, and unless residents feel some loyalty to it. A provable adage is that "he who shops at home shops best."

While shopping centers use all sorts of gimmicks to "glamorize" shopping, and discount houses reduce prices on some items at the expense of service, guarantees, sales personnel and other operating costs which presumably include physical and financial participation in local projects, most people still prefer to shop with home-town merchants.

Centers and discount houses invite local shoppers strongly and regularly. The home town merchant has not been able to gather his resources enough to equal the effort in the same degree the centers have with their strongly organized projects.

That is where the loyalty committee could make hay for the community and local business firms. This committee could remind shoppers through clubs, meetings, church groups and the like, that home town shopping means all the pleasant things it implies.

OK Given Huge Sign To Be Erected In L.G.

SAN DIEGO (CNS)—A special use permit for a Lemon Grove sign to have an area of more than 1,500 square feet was granted Friday by the County Planning Commission. The commission staff recommended that the sign area be reduced to 160 square feet, or about a tenth of the area proposed. The applicant was Sam C. Harris & Assoc. for a site at Fairview and Broadway.

The sign is to advertise the Starlight subdivision, and Lon Hubbard, of the company erecting the sign, said it would be the only one outside of the subdivision itself. He declared it had to be large so it could be read from Highway 94.

"That sounds like a pretty big sign to me," declared Commission Chairman Stuart Green, and Commissioner Gordon Cromer said it would be bigger than the houses to be constructed in the subdivision.

Commissioner Gilbert Ray spoke in favor of the sign, saying it was to be up for only a year and would not be any more of an eyesore than some of the bare places carved out of the hill on which it would be erected.

When it came to a vote, only Commissioner P. O. Culy voted against granting the permit.

Local Postmasters Give Happy Hints On Easy Christmas Mailing

If you are hoping to make this Christmas really merry, your local Postmasters may be your Santa Clauses.

Local postal heads—formally kicking off the 1962 "Shop and Mail Early" campaign—note that mailing is, for most people, one of the heaviest chores at Christmas.

By making this job as simple as possible, a happier holiday is likely to result, said Frenchy Faucher, Lemon Grove Postmaster and Mildred Moran, Postmaster of Spring Valley.

Virtually all Christmas mailing can be disposed of now by observing the following five suggestions, and during the Christmas rush you can relax:

1. Do your shopping for your Christmas parcels now.

2. Check and revise mailing lists.

3. Mail Christmas parcels promptly. Don't worry about being too early—just mail them marked, "Do Not Open Until Christmas."

4. Buy Christmas cards and address them soon, separating cards into out-of-town and local bundles. Hold them for mailing early.

5. Buy plenty of stamps now while post office windows are uncrowded.

For Christmas cards: recommended are the attractive new first-time 4-cent Christmas stamps. Their use insures first-class mail treatment—meaning the card may contain personal messages, may be sealed, and may be forwarded or returned. They are now on sale at the local post offices.

For example, if Great Aunt Minnie has moved without telling you, your card will be forwarded to her (presuming she has left a forwarding address). If the card cannot be forwarded, it will be returned to you (provided you have put your return address on the envelope as your postmaster asked.)

Incidentally, to speed Christmas card handling, letter carriers and post offices will have free supplies available of "local" and "out-of-town" bands about December 1. In most areas, postal patrons will find that a supply of these will be left in their mail box, or they may be had from carriers or local post offices for the asking.

And—just as an additional peace-of-mind safeguard about parcels this Christmas—the Postmaster General urges you to insure them. He noted that—despite the Department's efforts over many years to promote good packaging and addressing—the Postal Service each year has been unable to deliver, or return, about half a million parcels, including many lost because of poor packaging or incorrect addressing.

"It always mystifies us," Postmaster General Day observed, "why a person will spend a lot of time and money to select and buy a gift, and then will take about 10 seconds to package it and even less time to address it."

Another situation that discourages veteran postal employees is that when they finally manage to decipher an address on a parcel—they find it is completely erroneous—addressed to the wrong street or sometimes even to the wrong city and wrong state.

Once a local post office has exhausted all efforts to make a delivery or return a parcel, and has held it unclaimed for the standard 90 days, the parcel is usually lost for the sender or intended recipient.

Such parcels are disposed of by the Postal Service at auctions held at 15 major post offices over the nation.

"Sensible mailing practices, including early shopping and mail deposit, make Christmas so much better I can't see why everybody doesn't do it," commented the Postmasters.

More Commercial Zone OK'd For Campo Rd.

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — Commercial zoning for an acre and a half on Campo rd. in Casa de Oro, won the approval Friday of the County Planning Commission, despite protests from other property owners in the area and a recommendation of denial from a commission committee.

The change of zone, from residential to business use, was asked by three property owners: Raymond La Fortune, Albert Macias and S. P. White. Their land lies on the south side of Campo just east of Helix street.

The commission committee urged denial because the land is already occupied by three residential units, plus a kennel.

Richard J. Parker presented a statement in protest for himself and other owners of property on the north side of Campo road. But he said they would not object if commercial zoning were also given to their side of the street.

Mrs. Macias said the freeway was going to run by their front door, making the land good for business and not good for residences. She was supported by Mrs. White and Mrs. La Fortune, the latter pointing out that she has used her land for business, the kennel, for the last six or seven years.

"I'm not in favor of leaving this in residential zoning, because it will never be used as such," said Commissioner Warren K. Hooper.

The commission then voted to approve commercial zoning for the area north of the coming freeway, provided the owners give enough land for 50 feet of right of way on their side of Campo rd.

The hearing was continued to the commission's Dec. 21 session, to allow the property owners to complete the easement forms. Then the commission will recommend to the Board of Supervisors that the change of zone, just for the south side of Campo road, be ratified.

Recreation District To Get State Study

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — The Board of Supervisors Tuesday called in the State Department of recreation to help decide whether or not the proposed Jamacha recreation district is feasible.

The district is actually in the La Presa area and Supervisors have already suggested that the name is misleading.

The registrar of voters told Sups. that 300 names on the list were bona fide registered voters and are sufficient to require the Sups. to call an election.

The Sups set the hearing for mid-Jan. with the exact date to be announced later.

Sup. D. W. Bird said the issue could not be resolved in time for the district's costs to appear on the 1963 tax roll. He said it would require five weeks for hearing and five weeks for an election and that would be too late to coincide with the Feb. 1 tax roll.

DICK LAYNE OPENS CDO CENTER'S NEW "SHAY WEN" LOUNGE

Dick Layne, a well-backed-grounded musician is providing the piano stylings at Shay Wen, the newly opened cocktail lounge at Casa de Oro Shopping Center. He's appearing six nights a week and there's entertainment seven days.

Ed Bia, the operator of the new place, said an atmosphere of congeniality exists at Shay Wen. Dick can play about anything anybody would want to hear solo-wise; he also accompanies community singing and the local amateurs are invited to drop by and join in.

If someone dares, a microphone is passed to him so he can sing a solo with Dick accompanying.

The name "Shay Wen" reminds one of what a person pouring a drink might say to someone who is to have the drink. The name evidently is a Bia original. Bia, who co-owns Shay Wen with Dr. Robert F. Punta, is an old-timer in the business. In this place he hasn't spared the pence in creating a classy but cozy atmosphere.

The interior contains 1,400 square footage and seats for 76 people. Thirty-three of the 76 seats are at the clover-leaf bar in the center of the establishment and the entertainment takes place on a revolving stage within the bar. In each corner of the Shay Wen are booths.

The Shay Wen has acoustical ceiling and pecky cedar walls. Murals of the mardi gras adorn two sides. The overall motif is modern.

When you want to go out for a good, relaxed time, you could do worse than to say, "Shay Wen."

MERCHANTS AMAZED — Spring Valley Shopping Center Merchants were amazed when they looked over the entries in the what-is-the-turkey's weight guessing contest held in connection with Thanksgiving. Tom Turkey was stationed in a cage in front of Kresge's Department Store, where last week pretty Kresge salesgirl Jo Walrod posed with him (see photo) at the risk of being pecked and people passing by filled in blanks on which they estimated Tom's weight. Four had his exact weight — 17 lbs. and 10 oz. Six people who entered the contest will be having turkey for dinner by courtesy of S. V. Center. The exact guessers were William E. Hague, 3182 Centrol, S. V.; Allen Henrikson, 9152 Orville, S. V.; Mrs. M. Hyman, 4150 Cleveland ave., S. D., and C. Halbert, 723 Brucker, S. V. ## Contribs Add Slowly To Fence Fund Unsolicited funds are still arriving at the office of this newspaper for doing "something" about the lemon. The lemon is the huge landmark at Pacific and Main sts. in L.G.

The lemon's underpinning is sagging and the fence around the lemon's base is deteriorating. When the L.G. chamber of commerce set about recently to see what could be done about it, writers started sending coins to us. These funds are being stored carefully in the safe and the money will be handed over to the chamber at a fitting ceremony when a decision is reached on "what's with the lemon?"

Adams Street House Fire Mysterious

A Sunday night fire on Adams street in Lemon Grove did $3,000 damage especially to the kitchen of an empty house at 847 that had been the object of vandals on several occasions lately, the owner reported. Cause of the fire is under investigation.

The Lemon Grove Fire Department got the call at 8:38 p.m. and had the fire extinguished three minutes after arriving on the scene despite the fact that flames were shooting into the air, reported Fire Chief H. A. "Pappy" Hensley.

The sheriff's department and Fire Marshal Ray Carmody were investigating the mysterious fire. Vandalism is suspected because owner Irvin Dubrestein, who lives at 8434 Adams reported four cases of breaking and entering. He's had the house up for sale for two years.

Firemen answered a call at the home of Bob Wester of 3903 Shirlene pl., Vista La Mesa on Nov. 16 early in the evening. Firemen said Wester was controlling the upholstery of an old car he was preparing in this way for the junk yard when the flames ignited a small grassy area.

On Nov. 15 at 10:30 a.m. firemen put out a small grass blaze at the home of June M. Jackson, 1910 Madera st.

On Nov. 14 the L.G. Fire Department was called at 11:57 p.m. to the scene of a fatal crash at Massachusetts st. and Freeway 94 where Raymond E. Pierce was killed when his car plunged off the freeway. He lived at 1316 Magnolia in El Cajon.

On Nov. 18 at 4:44 p.m. firemen received a call from the home of Edgar K. Cox, who'd suffered a heart attack. They gave him resuscitator treatment but he was pronounced dead on arrival at the hospital.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

S.O.S. OFFICIALS THANK THOSE WHO MADE THE PROGRAM POSSIBLE

Dear Editor:

The success of the SABIN ON SUNDAY program realized in Region III is due to the assistance of your newspaper and the volunteer service of over 50 doctors, 100 nurses, 34 pharmacists, 34 cashiers, 17 supply officers, and more than 500 lay volunteers serving in the 17 clinics each Sunday. We have no better means at our disposal for thanking each and every one of these people than through the press. We can proudly say that because of this united effort we were able to immunize a total of 103,865 people or 67 per cent of the population against the dread Type 1 polio.

We're looking forward to the Type II immunization program set for December 2 and 9 and are counting on the same fine coverage and excellent volunteer help. Thanks are also due the schools housing these clinics through the assistance given by the various school districts and to the fine guidance given by Mrs. Margaret Willmon and Mr. Harry Silas of the San Diego County Health Department in El Cajon. As you know Region III covers Grossmont High School District and Mountain Empire District so we have a big job to do.

Gratefully yours,
James S. Ketcham, M.D.
Chairman, Region III
Mrs. Frank Armstrong
Co-Chairman

THE FLAG
The Flag is an emblem for you and me,
And it's as pretty as the tallest tree.

Man's first duty is to God above,
Who offers you His eternal love.

Second is to the Flag on high,
And to the men who had to die.
The Flag is not just a piece of cloth you see,
But stands for truth and liberty.
Our Flag will always fly;
It will never fall;
Because we will proudly meet the call.
In our land may love abide,
Across the way on the other side.
May all the people some day see
The pleasure of living like you and me.

BOY HAD A LITTLE LAMB
BY—The Ex-Texan

There was a boy out Pecos Way
Who started with a lamb one day.
Its fleece was white as white could be;
Boy called his lamb my "Honey Bee."

Later on in man's estate
He wheeled, dealed, state to state.

The lambs he now began shear
Had millions; he hit high gear.

From Texas to the Capital
No one questioned, all was well.
Quickly he'd learned his way around
In Dallas and Washington town.

Doors seemed to open at his will
How could he know there'd be a spill,
Or crash heard in fifty states;
Hadt'n he used the best of baits?

The DIMMER VIEW

Not only would the project be acceptable to shoppers but residents would enjoy a resurgence of the spirit of loyalty... a quality that adds character to our way of life.

A Blood Red Carpet For Nikita Khrushchev

The appearance of Alger Hiss on Mr. James Hagerty's television chain did much to strengthen the anti-communistic feeling in our country.

Just as Mr. Hoover has been suggesting right along, there are those who find it right and proper to give wide dissemination to voices of those who would give aid and comfort to the communists. We are not suggesting that Hagerty is a communist and we acknowledge that Hiss was charged only with lying, not treason.

Most rational Americans believe it was extremely bad judgment on the part of the producers of the "show." If it served no other purpose, it did knit together a little closer those Americans who are determined not to allow our Constitutional processes to be utilized for "burying" ourselves. To this extent Howard K. Smith, on whose show Hiss appeared, has helped.

There is, we are assured, a "red carpet of welcome" being prepared when and if Nikita Khrushchev arrives here to sell Cuba back to this hemisphere.

Teddy Gleason, national General Organizer of the 75,000-man International Longshoremen's Assn., in N.Y. and his men are set to buy up large quantities of red dye when K. makes his United States Nation's appearance. The dockworkers will pour the dye into the harbor waters as K's ship heaves into sight. The red dye, say they, will be the symbol of the blood the communist troops and militia have spilled in Hungary, Berlin, Poland, Tibet and Cuba.

Small boats carrying large signs in Russian, reminding K. of cannonading on the street of Budapest and the mountainside of Tibet, and of the execution squads in Havana's short-order prisons will also be in the harbor.

Gleason said the dockworkers will do the job they were unprepared to do when K came two years ago.

We think the spirit of reverse propaganda is finally catching on. We can't turn the other cheek and stay in the race with the commies. Nor do we want to battle surreptitiously. So we've got to use a lot of red dye. We've got to vocally complain about the lack of discretion in using a man guilty of lying about state secrets in the attempt of low-rate genuine Americans. We've got to let our voices be heard by our State department and Administration that a communist stronghold 90 miles from Florida is intolerable.

In short, we've got to become loud-mouthed Americans so that we may be heard... and counted.

Divorce, the Easy Way Out

A recent flurry of divorce actions here among some of our leading families, particularly where children are involved, encourages us to moralize... but we won't.

Instead, we are going to commend one of three groups by which we categorize married folk.

This is the group who make up pairs who loathe each other, but who are determined to make a home until their progeny are self-sufficient. The other two groups are the happily-married couples for whom living together poses no problems and, finally the couples who tell it to a divorce court judge.

To this matter we addressed ourselves during a National Education Week visit with Mr. Wiley Cornelius, the erudite principal of Mt. Vernon elementary school. Mr. Cornelius, let it be understood, is not involved in marital difficulties of any manner.

Why then were we talking to Mr. Cornelius about the divorce problem? It had to do with the additional teaching problems that are generated by pupils from broken homes.

We developed an intriguing philosophy as we talked. We agreed that happily married couples live easily and contentedly together for 50 or more years and the newspapers print a nice splash on their golden anniversary. Everyone who reads it clucks admiringly because these are the well-mated persons who were able to overcome whatever problems they faced before they became significant enough to make the couple want to unattach itself. So we read often of the happy folk, and of the folk who get news attention drawn to them by way of a bill of divorcement.

The couples who are determined to live together as a family although their dislike for each other is no less intense than the couples who appear in divorce court, are the ones we seldom hear a peep about. In many cases, one spouse or the other carries a hatred that is almost all-consuming, we are told. Yet, these people exist under the same roof, conducting themselves politely, and performing certain parental functions as do the happily married folk. There is here, we feel, a much stronger sense of responsibility for the family they conceived than in the other two groups. Psychiatrists maintain that it is easier for spouses to separate than it is to measure up to the self-discipline imposed in maintaining a normal outlook while withstanding the pressures that exist in the absence of love in the home.

These unhappy people are sacrificing themselves in hope that the benefits of an unbroken home will accrue to their progeny. We are told there are more of these miserable people than we happy family members suspect.

As we told our good listener Mr. Cornelius, to these people should go an award... a plaque of sacrifice, so to speak. For they are unselfishly contributing to the American spirit of family unanimity while others of a less determined mien head for the divorce court and the easy way out.

Since some of our friends may fit into one of the unhappy groups, let us assure them no offense was meant.

would make good on them. The report from the Popular Liquor and Delicatessen Store of a similar check from Oliver was received by the Sheriff's Dept. the same day.

Gas Now — Pay Later
Battery, and an attempt to inflict bodily injury with a lethal weapon, to-wit: an automobile, is charged by Elmer J. Hartney, manager of Ulrich's Ben Hur Self Service Station, 7503 Broadway, L.G.

Hartney reported the incident to the Sheriff's Dept. Nov. 15, stating that at 7:15 a.m. that day Clyde Carnist, 27, S.D., purchased $4.64 worth of gasoline for his '59 Chevy. Hartney alleged that Carnist said his wife had taken his money from the wallet. Hartney said he told the suspect he would not be permitted to move his car until he paid for the gas, whereupon Carnist, it is alleged, accelerated the motor of his vehicle and shot across the service station ramp area, pushing against Hartney and nearly knocking him down.

Hartney said he did not know what the company would do about collecting the $4.64, but that he will prosecute for assault.

Eat Now — Pay Later
A young man, with a woman companion, drove into Stan's Car Hop, 7495 Broadway, L.G., at 2:15 a.m. Nov. 16, ordered several cups of coffee and a ham plate, and, after eating, drove off without paying.

Arlene McMahon, who served the couple, riding in a blue Rambler, stated to the Sheriff's Dept., that this is the third time the suspect had ordered food and failed to pay for it.

Rental Damaged
Mrs. Marie Russell, 43, 2543 Washington, L.G., an electrical inspector, reported to the Sheriff's Dept., that an illegal entry was made into her rental duplex at 2955 Crane St., L.G. sometime between Nov. 7 and Nov. 14, and caused damage to the interior.

A rollout top window was forced, damaging it.

The intruder chipped the bathroom sink, disarranged the furniture, left cigarette butts in the ash trays and threw mattresses on the floor. Some of the cigarette butts, she said, had lipstick on them. From the evidence, Mrs. Russell stated she believed a male and a female person were involved. Damage was reported at $15.

In her zeal to right the disorder and make repairs, the Deputy Sheriff reported that Mrs. Russell had removed important evidence.

Men's Club Members 'Flunk' Arithmetic

Members of the L.G. Men's Club got a good, sixth-grade work-out Friday when Mrs. Elizabeth Higgins, teachers' consultant for the L.G. Elementary School district provided an American Education Week program.

While no report cards were handed out, few of the members made the honor roll, except Jim Spears, the president who excused himself from the luncheon meeting at Michael's long enough to get an apple which he presented to Mrs. Higgins. He got "A" for apple!

Mrs. Higgins said that emphasis in the L.G. District is on "Reasoning" as one of the four "Rs." "We challenge pupils every step of the way, trying to get them to ask 'why?'"

It was in the arithmetic demonstration that members "flunked." The entire membership, including three new members initiated the same day, admitted being pleasantly shocked by the stiff subjects being taught in Lemon Grove today.

Spears said the club would be dark Friday because of the Thanksgiving week-end. The following Friday will be the joint meeting with the chamber of commerce. The club will then resume its weekly meetings, he said.

Santa Claus will drop out of the sky onto Spring Valley Shopping Center on Friday of this week at 1 p.m.

He will bear gifts for children and any kids gathered there at that time will be able to spot him coming because gaily-colored smoke will trail from him for about 20 seconds during a "free-fall" before his parachute opens.

St. Nick usually comes by air via his flying team of reindeer. Being a member of San Diego Sky Divers Club, he will jump from 7,700 feet on this visit and sky dive before opening his parachute.

S. V. Minister Tackling Youth Problem Here

The Spring Valley Chamber of Commerce, at a board meeting lately came a step closer to action on the youth problem of the area. Rev. Wilfred (Bill) Blouin, of 9105 Valencia dr., a newcomer to Spring Valley, presented the board of directors with several ideas for helping the youth of the area to keep busy and off the streets.

He said his background with youth work can help the local problem a great deal. As a minister, he worked in jails and prisons and knows the need for a youth program, to curb the problem before it takes hold. He said many a youth, about to be sentenced for crime, asked, "Why didn't I get into something useful before getting into trouble?"

Rev. Blouin said he is not planning this youth program as a step toward building a church but is doing it strictly because of his interest in youth. He says he has a large building at the rear of his property that can be used temporarily as a youth building and it has enough room for various youth projects.

Women Describe Program

Mrs. Elaine Horowitz, president of the Avondale Elementary School PTA and Mrs. Jim Jordan, outside publicity chairman of Avondale PTA and chairman of the committee to form a recreation district in the South S.V. area, were also at the meeting and told of the youth program that has already started at both the Avondale and Rancho Elementary schools. Both said their group will be glad to work with other groups in helping to secure a centralized youth center that will serve the entire area, a center actually that will not only serve the youth of the area, but the senior citizens as well.

At the conclusion of the discussion, president of the Chamber, Deane Russell appointed Rev. Blouin as chairman of the youth committee, and several board members and others volunteered to serve on the committee. The committee will hold its meetings in the board room of the S.V. Chamber of Commerce building.

In other business, Mrs. Betty Seymour Robinson told of the annual Christmas decorations contest to be held in the entire Spring Valley area. She said several awards will be made to home owners having the best decorated home with the Christmas theme; the awards to be given to several categories. Mrs. Robinson said a committee has already been formed for the program.

Teen Dance Planned

Bill Zabel, who was general chairman of the Oct. 31 "Mystery" party held in the Chamber of Commerce hall, said the date of Dec. 29 is open for a party or a dance in the Chamber hall. It was moved and voted on unanimously that the Chamber sponsor a New Year Teen dance on that night. Appointed to the committee were Cliff Pennick, Frank Berger, Chuck Tinkham and President Deane Russell.

Because of two board members leaving, vacancies had to be filled at the meeting. To fill the balance of the one year term of Charles Lambert, President Russell appointed Bill Zabel; and for the balance of the two year term of Tom Miller, Frank Berger was appointed. However, Tom Miller was the first vice president, and to step into that office, second Vice President Frank Davis was advanced; and to succeed Davis, director Chuck Tinkham was advanced.

Mt. Miguel Beats El Capitan 27-13 Despite Costly Errors

by DAVID CARPENTER

Mt. Miguel High school scored a smashing 27-13 victory that was even more lopsided than the score indicates over El Capitan at Gillespie Field Friday night.

In the first quarter, both teams were scoreless. In the second, Mt. Miguel broke loose. With the ball on the El Cap 48, Matador fullback Dave Schroeder took a handoff and romped 40 yards to the Vaquero eight before he was tackled. On the next play, Matador quarterback Steve Frank tossed a pass to halfback Jim Stevens in the end zone for a TD. Luther Clark's kick was good.

The Matadors then held the Vaqueros, who had to punt and Miguel took over on their own 43. After a 5 yard gain to the 48, Dave Schroeder again broke off tackle and, this time, he ran 38 yards to the Vaquero 14. Two plays later, Steve Frank threw a TD pass to end Craig Stamper who was alone in the end zone. Clark's kick went wide and it was now 13-0 Matadors.

The Miguelers made few errors, but one was a big one!!

Errors Big

Number one came on the first play after the second half kickoff. The Matadors had the ball on their own 23. Halfback Tim McKinney faded back to throw a pass, but was hit. He fumbled and El Capitan got the ball. On the first play, Vaquero halfback Dave Duncan ran 26 yards for six points. Quarterback Flory's pass to Duncan was good for the extra point.

El Capitan kicked off and Mt. Miguel tackle Luther Clark brought the ball back to the Vaquero 45. Steve Frank tried to throw a pass but had the ball knocked out of his hands. An unidentified Vaquero player scooped it up and ran 55 uncontested yards for the touchdown. The PAT was unsuccessful. The score stood at a tie 13-13. That ended El Capitan's scoring for the night. Two succeeding drives were stopped on the Matador 25 and 30.

This was the last game of the season for both teams. Mt.

Miguel finished with a 3-3 league record and a 3-5 overall record.
